LIGHTHOUSE BBC LEARNS THE TRUE WORKING OF THE GRACE OF GOD BESTOWED ON HIS PEOPLE

"We...beseech you also that ye receive not the grace of God in vain"
(2 Cor 6:1).

Praise God for the 3-Sunday night Stewardship Emphasis! Through this event we are able to realize the true working of the Grace of God in the New Testament Church, in particular, the Lighthouse Bible Baptist Church.

Throughout the three weeks of study, I expounded on the riches of the Grace of God toward His people, how that His Grace is abounding to the whole body of believers.

Our text above admonishes us, "...that ye receive not the grace of God in vain." Instead, to take the example of the Apostle Paul when he said, "...His grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain..."

One of the most important lessons we learned about the grace of God is this: That it is not bestowed simply for the benefit of the recipient.

In the case of the Apostle Paul, we can see two results of the Grace of God in his life, both in times of sufficiency and want -- evidences that the grace of God in him was not in vain.

In the matter of the grace of God which made him to say, "...by the grace of God I am what I am," such grace made him to labor more abundantly than others.

In the matter of the grace of God in him, in answer to his weakness, particularly in how the Lord replied to his thorn in the flesh, such grace strengthened him to even make him to say, "Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities..." And what resulted farther because of the grace that strengthened him? By the same grace, he was able to tell the Corinthian believers, "And I will very gladly spend and be spent for you; though the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved" (2 Cor 12:15).

The Lord Jesus showed us by example the perfect work of grace in 2 Cor 8:9, "For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich."

What do these things mean to all of us?

The true working of grace does not begin and stop in the person or people to which this grace is bestowed, but it flows and blesses those around him/them. That is the reason it is described as abounding.

For the person who claims that the grace of God made him to reach his goal, such grace enables him go beyond himself and to bless and even enrich others. For the person going through tough times in life, such grace enables him to be strong and to overcome his plight so he can be strong for others.

Without these results of grace in us, it appears that we only receive the grace of God in vain.

Lighthouse BBC's primary adult fellowship, the Household of Aquila and Priscilla (HAP) makes a very comprehensive presentation that summarizes the preachings of Pastor Reuben on the Grace of God in the Ekklesia. Picture shows the HAP citing points in Pastor's messages on the subject.

ABOUNDING IN THE GRACE OF GIVING

By Pastor Reuben Abante

“Therefore, as ye abound in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us, see that ye abound in this grace also” (2 Cor 8:7). “...prove the sincerity of your love. For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich (2 Cor 8:8-9). “As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God” (1 Peter 4:10)
